Cortijo Roca Tranquila, a new favourite?

8 dec 2008

Situated at the top of a hill in Torreblanca, with wonderful views over the Fuengirola bay, this fine dining Mecca has become a favourite among fastidious Scandinavians. Head chef and CEO Kasper Nilsen, a former member of the Danish National Chef Squad, has put some Danish delight into the Mediterranean cuisine and the result is stunning. When you enter this exquisitely renovated and tastefully decorated cortijo like villa, you'll find the Chef right there, greeting you from his kitchen kingdom. The four course lunch he prepared for us a few weeks ago was perfect and well balanced to every detail. The service is very friendly and knowledgeable and we left the establishment wondering whether this was the best meal we ever had on the Costa. Four persons 290 €, including 4 glass of Cava from Raventós i Blanc, a bottle of Torre la Moreira and a bottle of Pago de los Capellanes, mineral water and coffee..... yes, but well worth it /kg!
